A word from the Jamboree Director

Tena koutou, something practical to start with this week. Thursday, 12 October, is the cut-off date for Staff members to order staff polo shirts. If you are unsure about attending, I suggest submitting your application, even if you need to cancel after the 12th. Due to many reasons, we will not order any extras, just in case. To all Staff and potential Staff, please submit your application before Thursday, 12 October. On another note for our Educational Outcomes. Educational Outcomes is the mission of Scouting, which is to contribute to the education of young people through a value system based on the Scout Promise and Law to help build a better world where people are self-fulfilled as individuals and play a constructive role in society — something to ponder. The Educational Outcomes can be found here:

GLOBCITPEA WORLD seeking a Masterchef

Do you love to cook, teach young people, and have exceptional culinary skills? If YES, we want you to be our Masterchef to lead a fun base. For more information, email Adventure GLOBCITPEA World lead Rachael Carruthers at rachael.carruthers@jamboree.scouts.nz

Attention Jamboree Managers

The cut-off date for ordering Jamboree Polo Shirts is Thursday, 12 October. Please ensure that all your Staff are signed up by then. Anyone registering from Friday, 13 October, cannot order a Polo Shirt.

Jamboree merchandise

For this Jamboree, you will have the opportunity to be part of a new initiative.

The Promo Room souvenirs. The souvenirs available from The Promo Room at: <https://www.thepromoroom.co.nz/jamboree/> can be pre-ordered, picked up and paid for at the Jamboree. This will help us ensure we have enough stock for everyone and available at the Jamboree. We are still confirming prices for these goods and will let you know mid to late October, but the range will be from $1.50 to $20. As soon as we know, we will publish a price list. Our thanks to The Promo Room for initiating this idea. Awesome work team. This offer closes on Thursday, 30 November.

Scouts Direct souvenirs. There is a range of goods provided by Scouts Direct at: <https://scoutsdirect.co.nz/search?q=23rd> Goods can be ordered and paid for, and Scouts Direct will post them pre-Christmas. Orders from overseas can be paid for and be available at the Jamboree for pickup. The opportunity to order closes on Wednesday, 1 November. There will be limited stock of the Scouts Direct merchandise available at Jamboree.

Jamboree shop. The Jamboree shop will have other souvenirs available. We hope to publish a list of these in late November. The shop will also sell sweets, ice blocks, drinks, and badges.

Police Checks - time is running out to submit

All adults and youth members over 18 at any point of the Jamboree must complete and have verified a Police Check or whose Police Vetting expires before mid-January 2024.

Due to the six-week turnaround of Police Checks, plus the added demand for the Police Vetting service in the run-up to Jamboree, it is crucial to action renewal requests immediately when received. Office closures for Christmas and public holidays mean your Police Check must be submitted before 1 November 2023 to ensure it will be completed in time for you to attend. If you receive a reminder email, the check has not been actioned, so please contact membership@scouts.nz if you believe it has already been processed. Existing Leaders will receive an email three months from the expiry date of their current police check. New applicants get sent an application email when applying. Please check if your email address is correct in Mahi Tahi. This is the email that the form will be sent to. You can check this along with your current Police Vetting expiry on your profile page in Mahi Tahi. If you don't have a login for Mahi Tahi, your Group Leader will be able to check this or email us at membership@scouts.nz.
